Daily Tehillim

Ever since the Six Day War in 1967, three chapters of Tehillim have been recited after Shacharis every day except Shabbos and Yom Tov. With the deterioration in the Security situation in Israel, it is all the more important that we play our part and join the Tehillim before we leave Shul, and conclude with "Acheinu". Every atrocity brings a sigh and then we tend to move on. But it sometimes comes closer to home. A young woman who was so brutally murdered was a relative of Rebbetzen Cooper. Tragedy has included many miracles and our Tehillim certainly contributes. And, of course, if we can't stay for Tehillim, we can recite the three chapters ourselves. Cards with the text are available on request. By the way, we also have in mind sick members of our community.
