TIME FOR SHABBOS & MINCHA ON FRIDAY – An explanation

A number of members have asked why last year we brought in Shabbos all summer at 7.30pm and this year we have reverted to the 7.30/7.45pm split. We would like to explain that this is based on a decision as voted at the last AGM. There are a number of single men in the Shul who cannot light candles before Plag Haminchah (this week 7.37pm) and be in Shul in time for Mincha and Kabollas Shabbos if we were to start at 7.30pm. We apologise to those members whose young children cannot attend Shul due to the later start and we hope that they will understand why our members at the AGM made this decision.

SHAVUOS SHUL MAINTENANCE APPEAL

The 4th Annual Shavuos Shul Maintenance Appeal was made on 2nd day of Yom Tov. This year's appeal was not for any special project, as in past years, but for general maintenance in the Shul, which is very overdue in some areas. If you would like to donate, please forward your payment by voucher or cheque to David Segal.
