 הפטרה ישעיהו (Isaiah) 54:1-54:10&54:11-55:5
 (According to the Shuchan Oruch, if Rosh Chodesh Ellul, which has its own Haftara, namely Isaiah 66, coincides with Shabbos Re'eh, the haftarah of Re'eh, not for Rosh Chodesh Ellul, is read because the Seven Sabbaths of Consolation must not be interrupted. But this does not appear to be the prevailing custom and the Rosh Chodesh Haftra was read on Rosh Chodesh and the Haftra for Re'ah is tagged on at the end of the Haftara for Ki Tzaytzay)

Friday Evening Timings

The times of the start of Shabbos have started to get earlier and now reflect the actual time that Shabbos starts. Please be aware when carrying out work to prepare for Shabbos and ensure that all work ceases and candles are lit by the times stated.

Shul Building's 51st Anniversary

On Sunday 19 September/22 Ellul 1965 the Shul building was consecrated in the presence of many members, friends, Rabbonim and lay leaders. One of the main guests was the late Rabbi Dr Solomon Schonfeld ztl, who was instrumental in setting up the Shul in 1948. So, after 51 years, the building has begun to look its age. The current Board of Management have spearheaded a new programme of both essential repairs and expert examinations of the building. Thus in recent weeks the roof covering has been replaced, the electricians have been checked and certificated, the building has had an extensive asbestos survey and there is an ongoing Health and Safety audit. More about all this in the Shul Rosh Hashonoh Magazine, now with our printers.

Shul Payments

Have you settled your Shul invoice for the year up to Rosh Hashonoh? If not, or you have outstanding Matonoh payments, our Treasurer David Segal is waiting to hear from you. Please also remember that Burial Society dues must be paid promptly. The Shul cannot be expected to lay out large sums of money for the Burial Society when the accounts have not been settled
