Mr Issy Reich ז"ל

Mr Issy Reich, who made the Annual Appeal in North Hendon for the Jewish Rescue and Relief Committee, usually just before Purim, was Nifter last Shabbos after a short illness. He was born in Slovakia, and having spent time in the Theresienstadt concentration camp with his mother and older sister, he came to the United Kingdom on the last of Rabbi Dr Solomon Schonfeld's Kindertransports in 1948. The youngsters of that Kindertransport were sent to Cloyne Castle in Eire where one of the Madrichim was Rebbetzen Cooper's brother Rabbi Binyomin Pels and his future wife. He spent periods in Gateshead Boarding School, Gateshead Yeshivah and Ponovez Yeshivah. He then married and went into business as well as raising money for the JRRC. On retiring, he became involved in informal education at the JFS with the aim of getting boys to go to Yeshiva. Only last Sunday a former pupil, who is now a Rosh Kollel in Israel telephoned for some advice on raising money in the UK for the Kollel. Unfortunately he was too late .....
