SERVICES TO THE COMMUNITY - Chevra Kadisha 020 8455 7389

	The Chevra Kadisha is a long established organisation - for both men and women - in Jewish communities to make all the necessary arrangements when someone passes away, to ensure that everything is done in accordance with Halochah and tradition and to ensure a speedy burial. Work for a "Chevra" is traditionally known as "Chesed Shel Emiss" as there can be no repayment from the recipient. It is considered most meritorious to be involved with a Chevra - though such work is not for everyone! The Chevra will carry out the "Tahara" (ritual washing) of the corpse and prepare the body for burial and make all the arrangements for the actual burial including the preparations of the grave and provision of the hearse. Here in North West London the N W London Chevra Kadisha is aligned to the Hendon Adath but covers many other Shuls in the area. There are other "Chevras" for the Golders Green Beth Hamedrash and the Hendon Synagogue, which is part of the Unite Synagogue. It is traditional for those involved in the Chevra to observe a fast on a chosen date and to have a Seuda in the evening. The North London Cheva Kadisha have, for many years, observed the 7 th Adar as their "Chevra Day". The Chevra will also arrange a Tzedokoh collection at the "Levayoh" and the Shiva and distribute to funds to needy causes.
