SERVICES TO THE COMMUNITY - Hatzola

Hatzola Emergency Medical Aid Services to the Jewish Community now exist in twelve countries throughout the world (Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, England, Israel, Mexico, Russia, South Africa, Switzerland and the United States). In North West London, Hatzola was founded in 1982 by a handful of volunteers who realised the need for a neighbourhood swift response to medical emergencies.

It is a 24/7, 365 days a year service, to include Shabbos and Yom Tov. There are about 45 volunteers who have all undergone intensive training. As well as having three ambulances, fully equipped to LAS standards. Those responding may travel in their own cars. They all carry trauma kits and BLS (Basic Life Support) bags complete with resuscitation equipment and defibrillators and are recognised by the three emergency services, often arriving well before anyone else at the scene of an emergency. All volunteers undergo a year-long training programme and monthly training sessions given by doctors, A & E Consultants and the Metropolitan Police. Part of the training is being invited to join the London Ambulance Service as observers.
