NHAYS CHARITY FUND

 The Shul Tzedokoh Fund makes a collection every year during the first week of Selichos. However, this year it has been decided to start the collection earlier than usual. This is because of the unprecedented demand on the Fund. Some families in our Kehilla have been hit particularly hard due to the recession and ever-increasing domestic costs. We would appeal to members to think about our own Tzedokoh before responding to other collections and appeals. Every penny collected is re-distributed and there are no hidden expenses or deductions

NORTH WEST LONDON MIKVEH APPEAL

 An appeal for donations to the Mikveh was made last Shabbos. If you wish to donate, please pass cheques to Edward Glynn.

YOMIM NOROIM CRECHE

 Organisers are needed for the crèche over the Yomim Noraim. Unfortunately if no one steps forward, it won't be organised! Volunteers will also be needed to help supervise during the running. Please let Daniel Ehreich know if you wish to help in either capacity at webmaster@northhendon.co.uk

MESSAGE FROM THE TREASURER

£p The Shul is happy to reimburse any member who makes purchases for the Shul e.g. for events or activities. Larger sums require the approval of the Treasurer in advance. All reimbursement requests must be accompanied by invoices or receipts.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE YOMIM NORAIM

- As every year, we are requesting members to take home a box of the white desk covers to be laundered and ironed ready to be put on the desks before Rosh Hashonoh.
- Now is the time for new members who have recently signed up with the Shul to arrange their seats for the Yomim Noraim and the whole year. Please contact the Secretary as soon as possible.
- Similarly, any member who would like to change their seats, should contact the Secretary. We would like to encourage members to take seats towards the front of the Shul. It's quieter there!
- We would earnestly request members not to occupy seats which have not been allocated to them.
