This Shabbos/Yom Tov in North Hendon

So now you know it all: This Jewish year the most leined Rishon portion for the Kohen in the diaspora will be that of Parshas Nossos which will be read seven times (last Shabbos afternoon, Monday, Thursday, Shabbos afternoon, Monday, Thursday and Shabbos morning). Next in line is V'zos Habrochoh (six times). This year, since 1st day Pesach was not on Shabbos, so Shemini was not read the greatest number of times i.e. eight times or in a leap year when 1st day Pesach is on Shabbos, Acharay Mos nine times (including Yom Kippur morning) Thanks to David Levy for these insights

North Hendon Shavuos Programme

The Learning Programme will commence at 11.30pm with the usual complement of Shiurim and refreshments. Shacharis will commence at 3.15am. See the full details on our Shavuos poster. Thank you to Jonathan Gershlick for co-ordinating the Shavuos programme and to Uriel Tannen for the Shavuos poster

Tachanum after Shavuos

The Minhag (custom) of North Hendon is to recommence saying Tachanum on Monday. This is not a universal custom as some shuls will not say Tachanun until 13 Sivan. This is because in the time of the Beis Hamikdosh private Shavuos offerings could be brought until 12 Sivan, thus allowing a "catch up" (Tashlumin) period as Shavuos lasted only for one day.
