PURIM IS COMING

At this time of year, the Shul Tzedokoh Fund is looking for substantial donations to go towards the Pesach distribution to those who need help for Yom Tov. The demands on the Fund have risen substantially these last few years, and we would like to help as many families as possible. If you can help, please pass your cheque or voucher to either David Freedman or David Segal, the Fund Gabboim (Donations would be in addition to anything pledged in Shul over Purim) On Purim, as well as the Shul Tzedokoh fund benefiting from the "plate" collections, some of the proceeds are given to other charities of a similar nature in North West London

SERVICES TO THE COMMUNITY - Chizuk (020-8800 7494)

Chizuk, the mental Health Organisation for the Orthodox Jewish Community, founded in 1996, is run by Jeffrey Blumenfeld from offices in Stamford Hill. Chizuk aims to help people and their families who have mental health problems, reducing their sense of isolation, building confidence and encouraging them to take their place in society. It also helps and supports those experiencing life crises. Help is through drop-in groups, drama and art therapy, family support, befriending, organising carers, hospital visits and advocacy as well as employment projects. Chizuk is especially sensitive to the needs of their Orthodox Jewish clients. Additionally, there is an education role to help combat stigma by changing how mental health is viewed in the community. Chizuk operates in London, Manchester and Gateshead and is recognised by the relevant government and local authority departments.
